MID ATLANTIC

Mid-Atlantic Fleet & Family Support Centers (FFSC) recognize that being in the military presents unique challenges and opportunities for service members and their families.

FFSC's programs and services are designed to help you make the most of your military experience...and they are available to you at no cost.

WE'VE GOT YOU COVERED!

Family Employment Readiness Program

With approximately half of today's military spouses working, FFSC's Family Employment Readiness program is a valuable resource to help spouses and family members find employment. FFSC offers:

- ▶ Employment Workshops
- ▶ Federal Employment Information
- ▶ Individual Career Counseling
- ▶ Local and National Employment Information
- ▶ Mock Interviews
- ▶ Resume Reviews

Family Advocacy Program

FFSC is committed to preventing domestic violence and child abuse in our military community. The Navy's Family Advocacy Program provides the following vital services to commands and individuals:

- ▶ Clinical Counseling Resources
- ▶ Family Violence Prevention and Awareness Education
- ▶ Intervention and Case Management
- ▶ New Parent Support Home Visitation Program
- ▶ Victim Advocacy Services

Sexual Assault Prevention and Response Program

Provides high quality services and support to victims and survivors of sexual assault that strengthen their resilience and instill confidence and trust in the reporting process, whether they file a restricted or unrestricted report.

Call your local FFSC to learn more about:

- ▶ Case Management
- ▶ Training for SAPR Victim Advocates
- ▶ Victim Advocacy

Personal Financial Management

FFSC has many resources that can help you manage your money. Here's how FFSC's fully-qualified financial educators and counselors can help:

- ▶ Command Financial Specialist Training and Support
- ▶ Individual Financial Counseling
- ▶ Personal Financial Management Workshops
- ▶ Financial Literacy Touchpoint Education and Training
- ▶ Touchpoint Education and Counseling

Deployment and Mobilization Support

Deployments are a way of life for our military service members. Whether single or married, there are effective ways of dealing with this experience. FFSCs work very closely with deploying commands, their Ombudsman, and Family Readiness Groups to provide information and assistance. In addition, FFSC offers the following deployment and mobilization programs:

- ▶ Deployment Readiness Briefs for commands, individuals, couples, family members and children
- ▶ Deployment Support for families, spouses and children
- ▶ Homecoming and Reintegration preparation for families, spouses and children
- ▶ Return and Reunion for service members on the transit back to homeport. Target populations are command leadership, single sailors, sailors with partners, sailors with children and new parents. Additional training is available regarding stress management, financial management, car buying and sexual assault prevention and response.

Relocation Assistance Services

Whether you're arriving to or departing from your duty station, the following FFSC relocation services can help make the move easier on you and your family with:

- ▶ Relocation Assistance
- ▶ Relocation Workshops
- ▶ Welcome Aboard Information

Ombudsman Support

An Ombudsman is a command-appointed volunteer who serves as a liaison between command leadership and Navy families. Ombudsmen also provide resource referrals to command families when assistance is needed.

FFSC supports the Ombudsman program with:

- ▶ Ombudsman Basic Training
- ▶ Ombudsman Advanced Training
- ▶ Ongoing Guidance for Ombudsmen

FFSC also offers a host of other programs and services including information and referral, individual deployment support and Family Readiness Group training. Call your FFSC today for more information.
